

Unit 7 - Key take aways on handling manipulative behaviour

Apply active listening assertive communication and clear boundary-setting to manage manipulative patients

Recognize verbal and non-verbal cues indicative of drug-seeking behaviour

Develop an empathetic but firm approach to addressing drug-seeking behaviours

Maintain professional boundaries in emotionally charged situations

Use patient history and medical records to assess needs and guide decision-making

