It is your first week at A&E.

You are observing how the senior paramedic approaches the situation. Now your role is to assist and learn while ensuring the patient feels supported. Stay near the senior paramedic but maintain a safe distance from the patient. Offer supportive actions, such as offering water or checking the patient's file. Ask for guidance if unsure: "Should I call security?"

Key behaviour:

You observe how the senior paramedic handles the situation and help with checking the patient's file, checking waiting time, etc.
